

On yer bike to aid kids

OLGA GERLOFF

STARLIGHT Children's Foundation is ready to take its Tour de Kids cycling challenge on the road with Mosman businessman Stephen Philip.

This year participants will ride their bicycles from Albury to Sydney for seven days, starting on Sunday, to raise $70,000 for this well-known charity.

This will be the third time Philip will ride in the Tour de Kids and he said he was committed to the Foundation's cause.

"This race embodies community spirit and has added benefits for sick children and their families," he said.

» To Page 159

Pedal power . . . Stephen Philip (left) and Andrew Clark are ready for a charity cycling challenge on Sunday. Picture: SAUL NIXON YLV89221